My Recovery in General
I remain in meetings from beginning to end.
I respect whoever is sharing, and do not cross talk.
I listen to the message, not the messenger.
I welcome "relapsers" back with open arms.
I have my own "click" and feel uncomfortable talking to others.
I share about the solution, not just the problem.
I always pick up after myself at NA meetings.
I contribute regularly to the 7th tradition basket.
I practice the principle of self-support in all my affairs.
I firmly believe in the spirit of rotation of service.
Fact or Fiction
